

UNITED STATES PROBATION OFFICE FOR THE
EASTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE

FIREARMS: Title 18 U.S.C. § 922(g) states in part that the receipt, possession or transportation of a firearm by any person who has been convicted of a felony faces a fine of not more than $250,000 or imprisonment of not more than ten (10) years, or both. Additionally, Title 18 U.S.C. §§ 3565(b) and 3583(g) provide for mandatory revocation of probation and supervised release for possession of a firearm.

A firearm means any weapon which will or may be readily converted to expel a projectile by action of an explosive. This includes handguns, rifles, shotguns, or other explosive devices, including ammunition.
